

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Theatregoer,

Welcome to this performance of Andrew Lloyd Webber's masterwork, The Phantom of the Opera!

Bringing this legendary show to life is both a thrilling privilege and a profound artistic challenge. At its core, Phantom is a story of contrasts: light against shadow, beauty against deformity, and the thin line that separates passion from obsession. It asks us to look beneath the mask and confront our deepest fears and desires.

Our incredible cast and crew have poured their hearts into recreating this hauntingly beautiful world. From the soaring high notes of the opera house to the dark, candlelit caverns below Paris, every detail has been crafted to sweep you away in this timeless tragic romance.

Thank you to our volunteers, artistic team, designers, and all who moved mountains to make this show possible. We simply could not do this without your tireless support and dedication.

Be sure to mark your calendars--we have lots of exciting things coming up at the theater. This coming Monday and Tuesday, July 20th and 21st we will hold auditions for Beetlejuice Jr and you can find all the information on our website. Our show will be in September, when our attention will then turn to Seussical to close out our 2026 season in a dinner theater setting at Embassy Suites.

We are not slowing down in 2027, as our season was announced last month, featuring upcoming productions of Disney's Frozen, Shrek, Legally Blonde Jr., How to Train Your Dragon Jr., and The Santa Switch.

Thank you for supporting live theater and joining us on this unforgettable journey. Now, close your eyes, let your spirit start to soar, and surrender to the music of the night.
